SPECIAL NOTE FROM PRINCIPAL FOR A DAY, CALEB S

On Tuesday of Catholic Schools Week, I had the opportunity to be principal for the day. It was a fun day that made me think about when I first came to Blessed Trinity. Everyone is so welcoming and it is easy to make friends here. Thank you to all the Blessed Trinity students and teachers for making BT a great school and making it a great day!

SPECIAL NOTE FROM PRINCIPAL EVERY DAY, PATRICK O'KEEFE

During this week of celebrating Catholic education and Blessed Trinity, I am struck by the many blessings that grace our lives here. Our faculty began our time by reflecting on the Universal Call to Holiness, our innate yearning to know, love, and live out Christ's calling to a life of God.

As we celebrate, pray, learn, and reflect this week, it is an honor to be part of a community that is committed to living out this call in our classrooms, hallways, athletic fields, homes and community. Our BT family comes from diverse families across many communities and even three parishes but we are all drawn together by our desire to learn and grow together to our greatest potential as images of God.

It truly is a great grace to be a part of this wonderful community and to celebrate all that we do together. Happy Catholic Schools Week and Go Tigers!

WOMEN'S DISCERNMENT RETREAT

Opportunity for Families with Young Children to meet Consecrated Women

As part of the upcoming Women's Discernment Retreat on Saturday, February 18, at Nativity of Mary in Bloomington, parents and families are invited to join Bishop Cozzens, Father David Blume, Director of Vocations, and several consecrated women for 8 a.m. Mass as we pray together for vocations. Following Mass, parents and families are welcome to spend time with the Sisters for conversation and refreshments. You can also join the Sisters for Morning Prayer at 10:45 a.m. and adoration 11 am-12 pm in the Main Church. This is a wonderful way to gain exposure to religious Sisters and to hear directly from those who live the consecrated life.

The Women's Discernment Retreat is for women, ages 16 – 35, who have a genuine interest in learning more about consecrated life. The retreat will take place from 8 am-4 pm at Nativity of Mary in Bloomington. Registration is online.

Join us to gain a deeper understanding of consecrated life! Bishop Andrew Cozzens will celebrate Mass and give a talk at this year's event! The retreat day will include consecrated women sharing their vocation stories, along with many opportunities to chat and ask questions. Discover the steps to discernment, learn more about yourself, and listen to God speak to your heart. Lunch will be provided. Cost is a free-will donation.
